CACI is seeking individuals, both technical and professional interested in being a part of an exciting program supporting the Air Force Integrated Personnel and Pay System (Oracle ERP Implementation)!

CACI is a prime partner to our DoD customers in the Enterprise Resource Planning environment. We are looking for professionals who are interested in growing their career with us and being part of our large portfolio of enterprise business systems and Human Capital management solution programs. The AF-IPPS program will encompass the integrated Air Force Enterprise Human Resources (HR) and Payroll solution designed to alleviate the customer's current reliance on stove-piped HR systems and payroll interfaces that do not efficiently share information with one another. The system will provide a centralized resource for employees, managers, and HR Professionals to better manage personnel and pay information, helping the Airmen focus more on mission needs.

Specifically, the system will configure the appropriate Oracle e-Business Suite Commercial-Off-The-Shelf software application modules to satisfy AF business processes and integrate the product with MilPDS, which is based on Oracle's EBS Human Capital Management application. The delivered solution will result in table-level integration of human resource and pay data supporting a single instance of Oracle EBS, making life easier for the end user by reducing redundancy, eliminating superfluous manual process, and ensuring timely pay for all.

All positions require the ability to obtain a Security Clearance. An active Security Clearance is preferred. Specific positions include:

- Oracle EBS (Payroll) Professionals
- Oracle Apps DBA
- Systems Analyst
- Linux Engineers/Administrators
- Application Security Specialist
- Oracle Application Developers
- Software Testers
- Technical Trainers (UPK)
