

Fraudulent recruiting alert

Invesco is aware of the existence of fraudulent schemes where individuals represent themselves as recruiters and solicit candidates for employment via email or text message. If you have been asked to provide copies of personal identification and payment in order to process their application, please know that these requests are fraudulent and do not originate from Invesco.

Invesco does not ask for payment at any time during our employment process. We recommend that you do not disclose your personal or financial information to anyone you do not know.

All recruiters associated with Invesco will reference the requisition number and/or a link to the full job description on our website. All applications are done through our secure website <https://careers.invesco.com/>, you can find job postings and additional information about our firm on LinkedIn @Invesco Ltd.

If you have been a victim of recruiting fraud, you can submit a report to Invesco's Services, Technology, and Security Team.
